Quest Retail Technology Opens New Office

Anaheim, CA (May 7, 2004) – Quest Retail Technology, Inc has opened a new office in California at the Stadium Plaza Business Park, Anaheim.

Stadium Plaza Business Park

The new address is:

Quest Retail Technology Inc

Stadium Plaza Business Park

1591 Sinclair Street, Suite D

Anaheim, CA 92806

USA

Tel. 714-456 9954

The office is in a convenient location and only a stones throw from 3 freeways and also several significant sports and entertainment venues including Edison Field, Arrowhead Pond, Disneyland and the Anaheim Convention Centre.

The new facility will provide general office space for sales and administration, support and service centers and local warehousing.

Quest's USA based VP of Business Development, Jason Brown, said it was an exciting time and the location of the office was essential.

"When you have installations all over North America, being less than 40 miles from 2 international airports is fairly important in the scheme of things. Also, the fact that we have significant warehousing space means a better service to our customers."
